

5.1 SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) were drawn up by a United Nations working group, together with thousands of stakeholders, and adopted by a UN General Assembly resolution during the United Nations Sustainable Development Summit in New York on September 25, 2015. 193 UN member states have signed up to the 17 goals and 169 targets for global sustainable development with its specific objectives.

The SDGs were implemented as of January 1, 2016, and are designed to cover a period of 15 years (to 2030). The role of the private sector in reaching these goals was explicitly highlighted.
